ASB/CLUBS/GROUP

Are you interested in joining a fantasy football club for the 2017-18 school year? If so, stop by Mr. Bowie's (pronounced BOO-WEE) room (337) anytime during lunch, before school, or after school and provide a valid e-mail. Drafts will take place near the end of summer since the NFL season starts as school begins in the fall. There will be prizes offered for top finishers. It's free and all are welcome to sign up!

Students interested in FILM - Check out the 97th Street Pictures Film Workshop. This five day camp runs from July 10-14th, at 13047 Greenwood Ave N, Seattle, WA 98133. The program covers all five stages of film production, from Development to Distribution, balancing educational lecture material and immersive hands-on experiences. Everyone works as a team, rotating roles on set, and everyone leaves with their own unique short film they edited personally. They work with a mix of skill and age ranges. The most important attributes for successful students are film passionate, hard workers, who take instruction and embrace challenges. To inquire for details reach out to Ryan Smith at ryanmsmi@usc.edu, or by phone, (206) 861-4617.

COUNSELING RESOURCES

Hey seniors – the LAST RHS Scholarship Bulletin of the year has been posted on the RHS website on the counseling page. Women in STEM, EMT Training, money for students interested in entrepreneurial fields – there are scholarships available! Earliest deadline is June 16th, but others go into the summer. Don't delay! Check it out.

Hey seniors – interested in becoming an EMT? There is a full scholarship being offered for a training program in the region. Applications are available in the counseling office.

Here's a cool summer opportunity – create an app and show your creativity by participating in the 2017 Congressional App Challenge. You can do it on your own, or in a team of up to four people. The winning app from each Congressional district will be featured on the U. S. House of Representatives website and displayed in a U. S. Capitol exhibit in Washington, D. C. Visit www.congressionalappchallenge.us for more details. The launch date is scheduled for July 26th, with the deadline by noon, November 1, 2017.

The Red-Tailed Hawks Flying Club is sponsoring an Aviation Day Camp on July 22 (9 am to 3:30pm) at the Museum of Flight. 50 lucky students, grades 6 – 12, will fly in planes, experience aerospace STEM activities, learn about the Tuskegee Airmen, and explore the Museum of Flight. To sign up, contact Roland Bradley, Camp Director, at 206-949-8118 or rolandbradley1947@gmail.com. Sign up closes June 17th.

A Summer Youth Leadership Program with the purpose of empowering and inspiring Asian-American youth in high school is scheduled for June 26 – July 13 at the Massive Monkeys Studio (664 South King Street. Meet role models and leaders, discover Asian community resources, make new friends, and earn $200 to $500 in scholarships.
