

Do you know a language besides English? Can you read and write it too?

World Language Credit Testing Timeline 2017-2018

For Seattle High School Students:

1. Find out if you qualify and which tests to take:
http://www.seattleschools.org/academics/international_education/world_language_credit_testing/
2. Register for Washington World Language Assessment Day at:
<http://tinyurl.com/Register-WA-WL-Assessment-Day>

The district is sponsoring testing for 11th and 12th graders in Seattle Public Schools.

(If funds are available, students in grades 8 – 10 may be sponsored later in the winter or spring.)

To earn 1-4 world language credits in your language, how well can you do the following?

- I can understand ideas on familiar topics expressed through phrases, short sentences, and frequently used expressions.
- I can understand the main idea and some details in simple texts that contain familiar vocabulary.
- I can exchange information with another person about familiar tasks, topics and activities.
- I can use a series of phrases and sentences to provide basic information about familiar topics.
- I can write simple descriptions and short messages and request or provide information on familiar topics.
